An exceptional detached bungalow that has undergone a complete transformation and now presented in 'as new' condition. This stylish home now features 1115sqft of luxuriously appointed living space with designer fittings used inside and out and also features some very smart, bespoke internal features. No expense has been spared in the comprehensive refurbishment of this home with its striking external elevations and uncompromising finish. As soon as you walk through the new composite front door, you know this is a special home. The living space is surprisingly spacious with a fabulous kitchen/living space to the rear which adjoins the separate lounge, with both room having access to the rear terrace. The master bedroom is enormous and has a stylish ensuite shower room with both the other bedrooms being doubles as well. The property has been finished to the very highest of specifications and will suit the most discerning of purchasers. Highly recommended. No forward chain.
