A hugely impressive detached property of quite some style and quality situated in a fabulous location, forming part of the highly acclaimed Wolhayes Garden Estate, enjoying a pretty garden to the rear that backs on to Chewton Common. The accommodation extends to approximately 2085sqft and has been comprehensively refurbished to the highest of standards featuring large room sizes, quality fittings and bright, airy accommodation throughout.

Equally suitable for family or retirement living, this very special chalet is conveniently located within the Highcliffe schools' catchment area and close to the footpaths that lead to the village centre, with the cliff top and beach just a little further on. Arguably the best chalet available in Highcliffe at this price range at the moment.
