Rook Hill Road, Friars Cliff

An extraordinary coastal home of about 4800 sq qt, offering the very best in luxury living and located in the area's most sought after, private road within sight and sound of the blue-flag Avon Beach. Situated on the south side of the road with glorious south facing gardens that lead to the rear terrace and swimming pool, this exceptional home has been kept beautifully and features stylish fittings along with a fantastic first floor balcony boasting views of Christchurch Bay.

Rook Hill Road is home to some of the areas most spectacular homes, many of which have been remodelled and built to the personal specifications of the individual owners. Houses in the road are rarely on the open market and no 9 has been in the same ownership for about 30 years, during which time it has been extensively extended and refurbished to create the outstanding home it is today. With accommodation set over three floors and perfectly proportioned living space this is a most impressive home just moments from the beach.
