A characterful house of about 1400 sq ft situated on a lovely quiet road close to the High Street and Chewton Common. This lovely home has an eclectic decor with many of the original features including two open fire places, whilst the large rear garden has been beautifully planted and also houses a brilliant garden studio.

This charming home offers spacious accommodation and offers further potential for extension (stpp) as many of the other houses in the road have done. It is just short stroll from the High Street and cliff top, with dog walking nearby on Chewton Common. The location is excellent with the house also falling int the catchment area for both Highcliffe Primary and Comprehensive schools.
